WHAT ARE THE RISKS AND WHAT COULD I GET IN RETURN?

Risk Indicator

Lower Risk Higher Risk

← Typically lower rewards Typically higher rewards →

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 5 years. The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage, and you may get back less.

You may not be able to cash in early. You may have to pay significant extra costs to cash in early. You may not be able to sell your shares in the Sub-Fund easily or you may have to sell at a price that significantly impacts on how much you get back.

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this Sub-Fund compared to other Funds. It shows how likely it is that the Sub-Fund will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this Fund as 3 out of 7, which is a medium-low risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium-low level, and poor market conditions are unlikely to impact the Sub-Fund's capacity to pay you.

Be aware of currency risk. You may receive payments in a different currency to the base currency of the Sub-Fund, so the final return you will get depends on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not considered in the indicator shown above.

Beside the market risks included in the risk indicator, other risks may affect the Sub-Fund, including counterparty risk, credit risk, liquidity risk, operational risk and investment risk.

For further information on risks please see the "Risk Factors" section of the Prospectus of the Sub-Fund.

This Sub-Fund does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

The scenarios shown illustrate how your investment could perform. You can compare them with the scenarios of other products. The scenarios presented are an estimate of future performance based on evidence from the past on how the value of this investment varies and are not an exact indicator. What you get will vary depending on how the market performs and how long you keep the product. The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances, and it does not take into account the situation where we are not able to pay you. The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back. Whilst the above estimates reflect an analysis of what may happen to portfolio returns under various scenarios, the product may be affected by several other risk factors and your maximum loss would be that you will lose all your investment. Please refer to the prospectus for a more detailed explanation of risks.

WHAT ARE THE COSTS?

The person advising on or selling you the Sub-Fund may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs and how they affect your investment.

Costs over time

The tables show the amounts that are taken from your investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts depend on how much you invest, how long you invest in the Sub-Fund and how well the Sub-Fund does. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example investment amount and different possible investment periods.

We have assumed:

- In the first year you would get back the amount that you invested (0% annual return). For the other holding periods we have assumed the Sub-Fund performs as shown in the moderate scenario
- EUR 10,000 per year is invested

	If you exit after 1 year	If you exit after 5 years
Total costs	EUR 338	EUR 1,367
Annual cost impact (*)	3.38%	2.73% each year

(*) This illustrates how costs reduce your return each year over the holding period. For example it shows that if you exit at the recommended holding period your average return per year is projected to be 3.8% before costs and 3.1% after costs.

We may share part of the costs with the person selling you the Sub-Fund to cover the services they provide to you. They will inform you of the amount.

Recommended holding period: 5 years

The Recommended Holding Period (RHP) of this product is 5 years which is the period over which an investment into the product is expected to break-even. Please note that this is not guaranteed. The more your actual holding period differs from the product's Recommended Holding Period, the more your actual risk of losing money will deviate from the product assumptions. If you wish, you can redeem before the RHP at the Net Asset Value of the product. Also, you might have needs and constraints implying a completely different holding period suitable to you. Thus, we recommend you discuss this point with your financial advisor. The investor can redeem their shares on every Redemption Day.
